Backbone of the Drug and Alcohol Program

- As a UPL you are the backbone and leader of the Substance Abuse Program within your unit
- You must set the example and be drug free
- You must be technically and tactically proficient at unit urinalysis and providing drug and alcohol training
- You are the Subject Matter Expert (SME) and must assist the commander with the Substance Abuse Program

Drug Free Fighting Force

- As a UPL you show your loyalty to your unit and the Army by:
 - Educating the Soldiers within your command on drugs and alcohol
 - Deterring drug abuse by ensuring the commander conducts regular "Smart" unit urinalysis
 - Detecting drug abusers by performing legally sound urinalysis testing with proper chains of custody
- This ensures you have drug free Soldiers to perform required missions
- Your pledge should be to ensure that no Soldier within your unit causes personal injury to themselves or others because of drug or alcohol abuse.

Selfless Service to a Drug Free Army

- Take the time to learn what you can about drugs and alcohol, so you can educate your unit and truly be a subject matter expert for the commander.
- Complete unit urinalysis IAW regulations, handbooks, and SOPs despite the time it takes away from other duties.
- The Selfless Service you provide could save countless lives

Honor Your Freedom

- Honor America, the Army, your unit, and your fellow Soldiers by helping to make our Army drug free
- Educate your unit and help others make honorable decisions not to use drugs or abuse alcohol
- Demonstrate honorable behavior on and off duty and set the example for others to follow in regard to alcohol use and drug abuse

Make the Right Choices

- Make the right decisions about drug and alcohol:
 - Don't use drugs
 - Don't drink and drive
 - Report users so they can get help
- Ensure all Soldiers within the unit are treated equally when providing a specimen

Do the Right Thing

- Do the right thing despite possible repercussions from others
- Have the personal courage to:
 - Say no to drugs and/or alcohol
 - Report other Soldiers who are abusing drugs or alcohol
 - Inform the chain of command of problems or concerns about the Substance Abuse Program
 - Ensure the collection standards are applied equally regardless of rank or position
